Sometimes I Cry

Jason Crabb

Key = C

Tempo 64

Intro : |C |Dm |F |C |

Verse 1 :

```
          C                                    Dm
I look the part, blend in with the rest of the church crowd
             F                                 C
I know the routine, I could list all the bible studies in town
                C                             Dm
Watch Christian TV, I know all the preachers, their clichés
          F                      C
Been born again, without a doubt I know I'm saved
```

Chorus :

```
    G           C                 Dm
But sometimes I hurt and sometimes I cry
                F                G                C
Sometimes I can't get it right no matter how hard I seem to try
    G           C                     Dm
Sometimes I fall down, stumble over my own disguise
          F                                 G
I try to look strong as the whole world looks on
              (C)
But sometimes alone I cry

Verse 2 :

```
               C                                  Dm
I try to speak faith, never give the devil one inch to get in
                 F                                  C
I do worship and praise, let everybody know just where that I stand
                  C                                     Dm
On the back of my ride is a fish and a cross for the world to see
              F                                      C
I know God is good all of the time, yes there's no doubt for me
```

Chorus

Interlude : |C |Dm |F G |C |

Tag :

```
    G            C                    Dm
Sometimes I fall down, stumble over my own disguise
              F                              G
I try to look strong as the whole world looks on
               C
But sometimes alone I cry
              F
I try to look strong
                       G
As the whole world looks on, but sometimes alone I cry
```

Ending : |C |Dm |F |C |
