Intro : |Em . D/F# G |C ... | 2x

Verse 1 :

I've been hard on myself lately
Every morning I feel the weight
When it's hard, to just get out of bed
Tell my heart, 'cause sometimes I forget

Chorus :

That Your mercies are new today
Your mercies are new today
I can rest on Your shoulders
There is grace to start over
Your mercies are new today
Your mercies are new today

Verse 2 :

Help me rise like the morning sun
Help me see that Your work's not done
When I'm less, than what I want to be
Lord, I need You, to keep reminding me

Chorus

Bridge :

I kept thinking You were angry
But You were fighting just to hold me
And pick me up every time I fell
If Your love is here to lift me
And Your blood says You forgive me
Show me how I can forgive myself
