Verse 1

B \flat E \flat /B \flat B \flat

Je - sus, friend of sin-ners, we have strayed so far a - way We cut

E \flat /B \flat B \flat Gm F

down peo-ple in Your name, but the sword was ne-ver ours to swing

B \flat E \flat /B \flat B \flat

Je - sus, friend of sin-ners, the truth's be-come so hard to see The world is on their way to You but they're trip-ping o -ver me Al-ways look-ing a-round

E \flat Gm F

but ne-ver look-ing up, I'm so dou-bled-mind - ed A planked-eyed hearts be led by mer - cy Help us reach with o - pen hearts and o - pen doors

Oh Je-sus, friend of sin -ners, break our hearts for what breaks Yours

Verse 2

Je - sus, friend of sin-ners, the One who's writ - ing in the sand Make the right-ous turn a - way and the stones fall from their hands Help us to re - mem - ber we are all the least of these Let the me - mory of Your mer - cy bring Your people to their knees

No - bo - dy knows what we're for, on - ly what we're a - gainst when we judge the wound -

- ed What if we put down our signs crossed o - ver the lines and love like You
